Congressional Outlook

- Lame Duck Congressional session
- One year extension granted by the first Continuing Resolution
- January special Senate election in Georgia
- The House and Senate have two different bill structures
- Missing parts (Senate's Tribal Transit piece)
- Still no "pay for"
- This delay presents further opportunity
- Your voice makes a difference

FY 2021 Appropriations

- H.R. 8900 short-term stopgap funding measure to provide funds until December 18, 2020.
- Top-line spending levels were agreed to by House and Senate appropriators in late November.
- An omnibus including certain Coronavirus relief provisions is expected.
- As of last week, "the ink was drying" on FY 2021 appropriations, but final amounts remain secret.
